

about our firm

multidiscipline services

ms consultants, inc. is a multidiscipline engineering, architecture and planning firm providing full services to public and private clients throughout the eastern United States.

ms consultants is known for its comprehensive and integrated approach to each client and project, as a project may draw from the talents of professionals in multiple technical disciplines. The overall project process is simplified and accelerated by having in-house access to all disciplines essential for a comprehensive product.

Our clients benefit through the availability of a broad base of technical service divisions:

- Architecture (including LEED - Design & Administration)
- Bridge Design
- Construction Services
- Energy Infrastructure
- Environmental Engineering
- Environmental Planning
- Field Testing
- Geographic Information Systems (GIS)
- Geotechnical Engineering
- Highway Engineering
- Information Technology
- Landscape Architecture
- Mechanical/Electrical/Plumbing Engineering
- Municipal Services (including grant assistance and administration)
- Permitting
- Planning and Development
- Railroad Consulting Services
- Real Estate Acquisition and Right-of-Way Services
- Site Acquisition
- Site-Civil Engineering
- Site Selection
- Structural Engineering
- Structural Inspection
- Surveying (includes GPS)
- Traffic Engineering
- Transportation Planning
- Web-based Project Management

