JAMESTOWN, INDIANA: MUNICIPAL OPERATIONS

The town of Jamestown is a community located in central Indiana's Boone County. With a population of nearly 1,000, Jamestown's three-person town council needed a consultant to help manage its expected community and economic development.

The ms consultants team worked with Jamestown to identify what services would best meet the needs of the council and local community, providing more efficient and effective municipal operations.

In 2019, Jamestown hired ms consultants for various administrative and municipal services, including:

- On-site consulting
- Economic development consulting
- Planning and zoning assistance
- Comprehensive plan review
- Administrative process controls
- Meeting preparation
- Attend and organize town meetings
- Monitor and respond to planning- and zoning-related inquiries
- Management of general town inquiries, including email and phone
- Website management
- Annual budget and report assistance
- Policy and code assistance
- Infrastructure review assistance
